A FORGERY.—Thursday night, a respectable looking colored man ran into the Fourth Ward Station and said he came from the Colored Methodist Church on 3d street, near New York avenue, where a festival is being held for relief of sick and wounded colored soldiers. Two white men. strangers, had visited the fair room and presented a note, of which the following is a copy. The messenger thought it was a forgery, and wanted the police to say whether they should close their church The officers, of course, told them to go on with their festival, as the note was bogus:

WASHINGTON, July 21st, 1564. Mr. Payne, I hereby notify you not to hold meetings in your meeting house after 10 o'clock, as the neighbours have lodged a complaint of being disturbt of there rest. If I hear any more of this you will be made to pay a fine, and the parties after 10 o'clock be arrested. MAYOR WALLIC.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS .- Cavalry Scout .- A cavalry scouting party, consisting of detach-ments from the 16th New York and 1st Michigan cavalry regiments, returned to the city from an extensive scout in the direction of Oc-coquan village and Wolf Run Shoals. They met with no guerrillas, and ascertained that Kincheloe with his band had been ordered away from that vicinity on last Tuesday. The party camped at 3 o'clock this morning in the vicinity of Accotink, the loyal citizens of which place extended to the fatigued and hungry troops a cordial welcome, and would not allow them to depart this morning until each individual of them had been bountifully replenished from their own tables. Such hospitality to Union troops is not often found in the regions traversed by our scouts, nor are any better Union men in the vicinity of Accotink to be found anywhere.-Alex. Journal, July 22.

A HINT .- Yesterday afternoon as one of the city railway passenger cars was passing the State Department it was hailed by a richly dressed lady, or female. The car, which was crowded with passengers at the time, was stopped, and the lady, or female, entered, whereupon an elderly gentleman arose from his seat and offered it to the woman, which she took without a sign of recognition of the courtesy shown her. A moment or two afterwards the gentleman turned to the lady and said, "Madam, did you speak?" to which the female replied "No, sir." "Oh, excuse me," the gentleman remarked, "I thought you thanked me." The passengers seeing the "point," laughed, and a sudden effusion of color upon the woman's face indicated that she too saw it.

NEEDS ATTENTION .- The ranche of Mary Ann Burke, on south G street, between 9th and 10th streets west, has been an intolerable nuisance for a long time, being the resort of both white and colored prostitutes, and a place of frightful disorder. It is a place continually frequented by soldiers, who get liquor there, and under its influence behave in a way to make themselves the terror of the neighborhood. The police have tried many times to correct the evil, but find themselves utterly powerless, as whenever she is arrested and sent to the workhouse, she always finds means to get bailed out, and "starts business" again. The Provost Guard would find it worth their while to give this ranche an overhauling.

MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS .- The clerks of the Second Auditor's office have formed two companies, and are officered as follows: First Company-Captain, G. B. Kenniston; 1st Lieutenant, A. Jordan Swatz; 2d Lieutenant, Chas. H. Gardner. Second Company—Captain, S. B. Morse: 1st Lieutenant, Geo. G. Colby; 2d

Lieutenant, G. W. Akers.

The colored laborers attached to Assistant Quartermaster Allen's office, foot of 7th street, have been formed into two companies, and drill one hour every day, Sundays excepted. They are fully armed and equipped, and appear to make considerable progress in military tactics. The clerks and other employees of this office are also forming into a company.

CARELESS SHOOTING .- A few nights since, as a party of ladies and gentlemen from the Navy Yard were taking a pleasure trip in the Eastern Branch, when off Buzzard's Point, a ball, fired by some person on shore, passed among the excursionists, striking the water just beyond. Those on the boat were singing and amusing themselves at the time, and when this incident occurred immediately stopped, when the party who fired inquired and received the name of the boat, which passed on. It is thought that it was a sentry who fired at the boat; but if such is the case, we suggest that he should have fired a blank cartridge first, or else not fired among the party in the boat, who, by the way, barely escaped.

ONE OF 'EM!-Yesterday afternoon, officer Nicholson arrested a colored woman, named Sarah Johnson, who had a few days before been released from the workhouse on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. In taking her along, quite a crowd was attracted, and she stopped in the street and disrobed herself, and refused to go further, when other officers came up and placed her in a wagon, in which she was hauled to the Fifth ward Station, from whence she was sent to her old quarters this morning by Justice Ferguson.

FESTIVAL FOR PATRIOTIC PURPOSES .- The German Soldiers' Relief Association propose giving a grand festival for the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers, at Beyer's Seventh street Park, on Monday, 25th instant, commen-cing at 1 o'clock p. m. The object is a most laudable one, and as our most prominent German citizens are at the head of it, participants may feel assured of realizing much enjoyment, at the same time that they realize the fact that they are contributing to a most worthy cause.

FOURTH WARD STATION CASES .- Edward Myers, violating back law; $1.58. F. Philips, Wm. Wall, violating city ordinance; Richard Stevens Jane McConnell, Thos. Morrisey, disorderly; John Campbell, drunk; dismissed. John Sullivan, Jerry Wagner, Margaret Fitzgerald, Anorew Smith, Patrick Ridan, Charles C. Duncanson, drunk and disorderly; $1.58 each. Wm. Bayley, assault and battery; bail for hearing. Wm. C. Williamson, disorderly and interfering with officers; $2.58.

ANOTHER SUNDAY EXCURSION to Glymont, will be given to morrow on board the steamer Phonix. Capt. Stackpole is in command, and does all in his power to make these excursions very enjoyable affairs.

BRICK HOUSE FOR SALE.—Attention is called to the adversement headed "For sale, for cash only" This is a favorable opportunity for in-
